Gov. Perdue Appoints Robison as Union County District Attorney

RALEIGH—Gov. Bev Perdue today appointed Pat S. “Trey” Robison to succeed John Snyder as District Attorney for Union County effective Jan. 1, 2011. The position will be filled by voters during the 2012 general election.

“I feel confident that Mr. Robison will serve the citizens of Union County with distinction and professionalism,” said Gov. Perdue.

Robison graduated from the University of Oklahoma, and served for several years with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. After graduating from Wake Forest University School of Law in 1996, he served as an assistant district attorney in Union County until 2002. Since 2003, he has been a partner at Caldwell, Helder, Helms & Robison, P.A. in Monroe.
